TECHSPLORE SUMMER

TECHsplore Summer is a short-term study opportunity at the Georgia Institute of Technology for approximately 50 visiting international students.

This program is ideal for undergraduate students from any academic discipline who are interested in studying abroad in the United States and for students considering future graduate opportunities at Georgia Tech. Georgia Tech, one of the top twenty engineering schools in the world, is located in the heart of Atlanta—a growing metropolitan city with exciting entertainment and extracurricular opportunities.

Students take classes with current Georgia Tech students and engage in a series of events that allow them to explore the city of Atlanta. Students enroll in two Georgia Tech on-campus courses (6-7 credit hours) from mid-June to early August.

The application opens December 1 and closes on February 15 for students living outside the U.S. Students already studying at a U.S. institution should apply by April 1. Applications are reviewed on a rolling basis.

THE BASICS

Admissions
Students interested in the program should apply as a non-degree seeking TECHsplore Summer student at https://admission.gatech.edu/non-degree

Cost
The total approximate cost, including tuition, fees, health insurance, on-campus housing, on-campus meal plan, books, and additional living expenses is $13,000. The reduced total approximate cost for students coming as part of an exchange partnership that covers tuition and fees is $5,500.

Academics
- 6-7 credit hours
- Students must be flexible in their course choices, as there is no guarantee particular courses will be available
- Students are responsible for completing all required prerequisites for course enrollment

Housing
All students have private bedrooms in the Hayes and Gray Houses located on East Campus.

Dining
All students have a meal plan to eat at dining halls and select on-campus restaurants.
